What to expect on the weekend:

A priest and a religious sister will serve as spiritual directors providing Sacraments, meditations, talks and individual guidance. Mass, specific devotions and reconciliation will also be offered. A team of single adults who have prepared for the weekend will lead the activities, share their faith journeys, and help present the message of CSM.

During the weekend, talks are presented which provide fundamental teachings of Catholicism including such topics as: faith, morals, Sacraments and prayer. In addition, talks on issues that Catholic singles share such as: Human Sexuality, Forgiveness, Loneliness, and Single Vocation are addressed.

Retreat participants will have an opportunity to share these topics and other topics in small groups.

The weekend also will offer an opportunity for single adults to meet other single adults who are also seeking to develop their personal relationship with God through community, and the Body of Christ.

What to Bring:

Sleeping bag/pillow, toiletries, towel and comfortable clothes. Most importantly, bring an open mind and heart to fully experience the weekend.
